Bridgeport, Ct., Sept. 24. 1862.

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman: -

Dear Sirs: -

I have not received any reply to my letter which I sent you the 13th of August, in regard to the Polk & Dallas medal, [with the exception of a note from Mr. Henry Chapman, which simply stated "that the proprietors of the firm had gone away on a vacation, and would return the 5th of September, when the subject-matter of my letter would be attended to."]

Will you please write me by return mail, and give me the particulars requested by me in my letter of August 13th.

The price of the medal, as stated by you, would be about $2.25. I wish to know what amount it would be necessary for me to forward you, in order to cover the expense of the medal, postage, and all, in registered letter.

Yours Truly,

Messrs. S. H. & H. Chapman: -

Dear Sirs: -

I have just received the Polk and Dallas medal all right, and I hasten to send you prompt remittance therefor.

Enclosed find postal money-order for the amount, $2.38.

You inquired if I wished to order any other medals; I would say that I do not, just at present; but if I should desire anything further in this line at any time, I will remember you.

The medal is perfectly satisfactory, and I desire to express to you my thanks, for the pains-taking and trouble you have been to, in procuring the same for me.

Please send me receipt for my remittance, by return mail, and oblige.
Enclosed find stamp for return postage.

Very Truly Yours.
